May Meeting

Named Gift Honorees

At our annual luncheon on May 10, the Lake Oswego Branch honored two of our members with Named Gifts.

The first of the two honorees is Benona Dawson. We were pleased to feature a profile on Benona in the March 2008 newsletter on the occasion of her one hundredth birthday!

The second honoree is Jeanne Dickow. Jeanne is a graduate of Oregon State University where she received her B.S. and then went on to Lewis and Clark College for her Masters in Education. As a young teacher, she stayed at a ladies boarding house in Hood River: a claim to fame not many of us can match!

She joined the Portland Branch of AAUW in 1955. When her husband was transferred to Mercer Island, she immediately joined the group there. When they returned Portland, she became a charter member of the new Lake Oswego club.

Over the past years, she has been a leader in the Toastmistress Club, done some modeling with her handsome husband, Art, who was a Master Gardener, and has kept in close touch with her sorority sisters from Chi Omega. She is very active in the Lake Oswego Senior Center programs.

Jeanne has two daughters, five grandchildren and two great grandchildren. Though she looks like a very lovely proper lady, she is well known for her wonderful and slightly wicked sense of humor.

Congratulations Jeanne!

AAUW of Oregon receives national recognition!

AAUW of Oregon is recognized for its 2007 LAF contributions!! Nationally, Oregon's total giving was third, and Per Capita we were also third!

In addition, AAUW of Oregon has just been recognized by the AAUW Educational Foundation with a 2007 Top State and Branch Contributions Award! AAUW of Oregon has achieved eighth place in the branch and state fundraising awards...these are AAUW's highest branch and state honors. (Yes, that's right, eighth highest in the nation!!!)

Thank you and all of your members for the strong efforts which clearly demonstrate the commitment to educational and social equity for women and girls.

Jottings from Jane

“Don’t tune out
for the summer.
Do expect the fall
to bring stimulating changes.”

Here comes summer! It’s time for everybody to stop running around, put their brain on hold, shed all responsibility, right? That’s what we’ve been programmed to think since our school days, even if we actually pursued year-round careers.

When it comes to AAUW — and incidentally, the acronym is now the preferred name of the association — there is only a little truth in that attitude. Yes, we don’t schedule branch meetings for the summer months. Some of the interest groups take at least a partial hiatus. There may be a change in leadership, allowing outgoing officers a break. There is, however, a lot of activity with continuing responsibilities.

At the branch level, the Board will hold a day-long executive session at the end of June to make plans for the next year. As a result of that session, various people will have summer projects, such as lining up the programs for the year, producing the Directory, or organizing new membership efforts. A new team is taking over the web site, with both updates and a redesign in the works. There may be changes in emphasis, new areas of interest, possibly different approaches to raising funds for AAUW causes.

At the State level, there will be two conferences in Oregon. A Regional Convention is scheduled at Lewis & Clark in June, with an opportunity to get to know members from Idaho, Montana, Washington, Alaska, and Hawaii. With it being so convenient, you can choose to attend for just a day if you wish, or take advantage of a full weekend of events. And then at the end of July, the annual Leadership conference will be held on the campus of Willamette University, Salem. It offers many opportunities for building inter-branch relationships and acquiring new leadership skills.

On the association level, our branch is helping to send Christine Cruver to the National Conference for Women Student Leaders. We expect to learn about her experiences in Washington at one of our fall meetings. In addition, the Association will continue its process of reinventing itself for the 21st century without taking a summer holiday. There will be developments in restructuring, an expansion of the mission of LAF to include sexual discrimination issues outside academia, and a redefinition of the sorts of support LAF will provide.

Don’t tune out for the summer. Do expect the fall to bring stimulating changes. And if you do take a summer vacation, have a wonderful time!

SUMMER BOARD MEETINGS

7:00 P.M. AT MARYLHURST LIBRARY

AAUW through the eyes of a new member

Dorothy Martin

Christine Cruver, our new student affiliate, attended the State Convention with some of us in April. A few days later she was asked what her impressions were about the convention. Christine's eyes lit up and she enthusiastically replied she was impressed by the "spirit of giving back" and by our focus on caring for the welfare of other women and girls that she heard expressed in the meetings and informal conversations. This fall we'll hear from Christine about the AAUW leadership training she will go to in Washington D.C. in June. Her further comments about convention and her opportunity to take part in the training in June reminded me once again how much I value being a member of this very worthwhile organization.

AAUW SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENT

Marylhurst University student, Heidi Christensen, has been selected to receive the American Association of University Women (AAUW), Lake Oswego Branch, scholarship for the 2008-2009 academic year. Heidi is a single mother of a 7 year old daughter, and is majoring in Psychology. She is enrolled as a full-time student at Marylhurst and is also enrolled at PCC part time. She maintains a 4.0 GPA while also working as a leasing agent for a property management firm. Following her graduation from Marylhurst, Heidi plans on pursuing a Masters degree in Counseling Psychology at Pacific University. Her goal is to establish a private practice in counseling and also to teach at the college level. When asked what she likes to do for 'fun' she replied that she loves to spend time with her daughter, go to the coast, go to movies and read. She chose Marylhurst two years ago for her degree on a recommendation from her sister and loves the opportunities it has given her for a stimulating education, intellectual involvement and a generally supportive atmosphere. We offer sincere congratulations to Heidi and hope that she will join us during the year at one or more of our Branch activities.

Dues Reminder once again

Dorothy Martin

My thanks to those of you who have already sent me your dues. I just received the annual dues report forms from National which I have to fill in and return by July 1st. I'd be very, very happy to be able to check "Paid" beside every member's name on that list. With your help, we can make that happen.

A dues payment form is on page 7 — many, many thanks for completing the form and sending it to me with your annual dues check!

Special Thanks!

We are indebted, and inspired, once again by the wonderful flower arrangements provided by Victoria Von Tegen for the Friday night dinner at Convention on April 25. Thank you, Vicki, for representing our Branch with such attractive centerpieces.
