Tea: The Fundraiser

Saturday, May 13 at Noon

Oswego Heritage House
"A" Avenue and 10th St., Lake Oswego

Cost: $20.00 (RSVP and pre-pay)

It's time to send in your reservations for our branch's biggest fundraiser -- our annual tea/luncheon. Please RSVP by May 10. Bring your friends and family members to enjoy our signature brew of tea as well as an assortment of salads, scones, and sweet treats.

Proceeds go to support AAUW funds and our local scholarship. Send checks payable to Lake Oswego AAUW to Margaret Ricks, P.O. Box 416, Marylhurst, OR 97036, tel. (503) 744-0977. Please include names of guests.

Marcia Elliot (mother-in-law of Dixie Kroupa's son) has donated this quilt for a raffle. The quilt measures 60"x60". Raffle tickets will be available for $5 at the tea. All proceeds will go to our scholarship fund.

Squire's Scribblings

by Stephanie Carter for Pat

On January 21st, Pat and four of our branch members joined thousands of other women (and men) at the Portland Women's March. The mission of this grassroots effort is complementary to that of AAUW:

"We stand together in solidarity with our partners and children for the protection of our rights, our safety, our health, and our families - recognizing that our vibrant and diverse communities are the strength of our country."

The march was about letting your voice be heard. Former President Obama tweeted in 2013: "Make sure your voice is heard. Let your leaders know what you expect of them. Let them know what you believe."

AAUW provides members with many opportunities to let their voice be heard. On February 14 AAUW members from across the state converged on the Capitol to speak with legislators and express their positions on issues that affect women, including a bill for fair pay. You can use the 2-minute activist site at AAUW to quickly communicate with legislators on issues of concern to you: <http://www.aauw.org/what-we-do/public-policy/two-minute-activist/>.

Don't underestimate the power of one voice to bring change!

Saying Goodbye to Dorothy Martin

by Carol Cooper

Dorothy Martin, long time member of AAUW and former LOAAUW board member, passed away peacefully on Thursday, April 6th, at Mary's Woods. Dorothy served as co-VP of Membership for 4.5 years. She also held other board offices including State Public Policy Chairperson and participated in many AAUW activities and special tasks. Dorothy was a member of two book groups, a bridge group and actively supported AAUW at the state and local level. She will be warmly remembered by her many friends and colleagues. Services are pending and will be announced.

Installation of Officers & Honorees Brunch

By Jane Taft

On April 8 our branch held a brunch to celebrate several happenings -- to install officers for the coming year, to recognize two named gift honorees, and introduce our new members.

We honored two long term members, Barbara McDonald and Carol Cooper for their contributions to the branch.

Named gift honoree Barbara McDonald has belonged to the branch since the early 1990's. She has served in many capacities over the years, including two stints as public policy chair (a total of about ten years), an extended period as IBC delegate, and a term as Program VP. She has been on a number of nominating committees. More recently, she volunteered for the membership committee.

Barbara is a member of three book groups. Theatre has been a long-standing interest for her, as an actress and a producer. She starred in a number of OASIS productions. She is part of the Center Stage group. This winter she did a fantastic job of producing a Readers Theater production, Breaking the Sound Barrier, for our Lake Oswego Reads event.

She also enjoys her children and grandchildren. She's especially proud of her daughter, Patty, who is the first female District Attorney of Lane County.

Named gift honoree Carol Cooper is also a long-time member. She served as Membership VP for four years with Dorothy Martin and more recently stepped up to lead the membership committee when JoAnn Siebe was sidelined with medical issues. Carol has organized "get out the vote" campaigns for Marylhurst, receiving State recognition. She is also a member of the Tuesday Books group.

Carol serves as the branch's liason with Marylhurst University. One of the pleasures of that role is getting to meet and keep the branch informed about the annual scholarship recipient.

We thank Carol for her constant support of our branch and willingness to lend a hand whenever needed.

Lake Oswego Historic Home Tour

By Nancy Dunis

Date: Saturday May 20, 10am-4pm.

Cost: Members $25, Non-members $30

Reserve your tickets now by going to www.oswegoheritage.org, by calling (503) 635-6373 or directly at 398 - 10th Street in Lake Oswego.

This year marks the tenth anniversary of the Oswego Heritage Council's historic home tour. Seven historic properties will be featured this year: three homes in First Addition, a home in Old Town, two properties in what used be the Hazelia area (McVey south to the Tualatin River), and the Oswego Heritage House and Museum where our branch meetings are held.

Tour-goers will have the opportunity to chat with descendants of some of the homes; meet the designer who did the major remodel of one of the historic homes; experience early Oswego pioneer life; ride the restored 1945 Chevy school bus. You may even run into a Linus Pauling look-alike along the way. Although not a resident of Oswego, his grandparents lived here and he and his wife Ava Helen are buried in Oswego Pioneer Cemetery.

Tour 2017 is going to be very exciting and unique - architectural history combined with cultural history, wine and fudge tasting, and costumed storytellers telling stories about some of Oswego's early prominent pioneers.

One of our members, Nancy Niland, is the Executive Director of the Oswego Heritage Council and several of our members have acted as volunteers in the homes on tour day.

Anne Redman Creates Silk Scarves for Branch Fundraiser

Member Anne Redman recently lent her considerable artistic skills to the branch by creating and producing two lovely silk scarf designs that our branch can use as a fundraiser. She has assigned the copyright for the scarves to the branch. All proceeds from scarf sales will be donated to the AAUW LO Scholarship Fund to further our mission of advancing equity for women and girls.

The scarves come in light green or in apricot colors. The scarf designs include an AAUW symbol along with flowers, butterflies, birds and many insects. The scarves will be available for purchase for $50 (or $40 for members) at the upcoming tea and by order. Send orders and payment to AAUW Lake Oswego, P.O. Box 416, Marylhurst, OR 97036.
