Squire's Scribblings

by Pat Squire, President

Recognizing Outstanding Contributions

It seems to be a tradition with this branch: ask a volunteer to do something, and it gets done and done well, often beyond expectations.

This year has been a great example of wonderful contributions - from branch officers to people just asked to step in and help. We started off the year during the summer, with a special fundraising event, Wine & Roses. So many people "popped up" to help: Esther Halvorson-Hill and her musician friend played wonderful music, Nancy Dunis conducted a tour of the Rose Garden at Heritage House, the Lunch Bunch outdid themselves with "catering" and many volunteers stepped up to help in other ways.

Others volunteered to staff our booth at the Farmer's Market, including Anne Koegen, who provided and set up the tent!

Nancy Dunis, our program vice president, put together a great line-up of speakers for our branch meetings throughout the year. She always comes up with an idea for something new. She is also coordinating the new advocacy group, that has plans you will hear about later in the summer.

Two of our outgoing officers, Margaret Ricks, our finance vice president, and Stephanie Carter, our newsletter editor and past-president, received our "Named Gift Honoree" awards for their work (described elsewhere in this issue).

Thanks to outgoing membership vice president, Dixie Kroupa, who greeted and coordinated with our new members all year. Also, a special hand to behind-the-scenes people like Cindy Regier, our outgoing secretary who kept our minutes up-to-date, and to Susan Shea who kept track of our donations to AAUW Funds. Robi Ingram-Rich kept the branch aware of public policy issues of importance to AAUW, and past president, Judy Hale, was our representative on Inter-Branch Council. Carol Cooper's good work with our scholarship and as our liaison to our former partner Marylhurst University was recognized at Convention.

A big hand to Esther Halvorson-Hill for keeping our website current and attractive, and to Karen Rottink, who kept us in front of the public eye with her great publicity work. Jane Taft played a key role with branch communications and reminders. Bravo, ladies!

Marty Maharg did a wonderful job with the interest groups, keeping them on track and reminding them of upcoming dates. Our Hospitality princess, Penny Hansen, kept our meetings festive and did a splendid job on the beautiful spring friendship tea. Kudos to both!

We have a large number of "unsung" heroines who help set up, take down, bring refreshments, fill in to do other jobs, and help launch new ideas. We thank you greatly for quietly and consistently helping out.

As an all-volunteer organization, it is critical that so many of you are willing to step up and do what are sometimes difficult jobs! Thank you to everyone. See you soon!

Upcoming dates:

August 11 - Farmer's Market booth: 8:30 a.m. - 2:00 p.m., Millenium Park [Contact Jean-Marie Pierrelouis if you are interested in volunteering.]

September 8 - First branch meeting for the new year

In Memorium Rebecca Hein

We are sorry to announce that member Rebecca "Becky" Hein passed away on June 4, following a more than 15-year-long battle with cancer. Her memorial gathering will be Saturday, July 7 from 4:00-6:00 at the Simon Benson House, 1803 SW Park in Portland.

Becky enjoyed AAUW and was a member of the Lunch Bunch and the Tuesday book group. For the past year she maintained the spreadsheet of members that is used for the directory.

Becky moved to Oregon in 1979 and worked for a time with the U.S. Forest Service at Mt. Hood prior to earning a post graduate certificate in accounting from Portland State University. She earned her CPA certification while an auditor with Coopers & Lybrand in Portland and later held top financial positions with a number of non-profit organizations including the OHSU and PSU Foundations, The Portland Rose Festival and the City of Silverton.

She enjoyed gardening, travel, golf, music, yoga, fine food and wine and socializing with friends.

Murder by the Book Selects New List

by Stephanie Carter

On June 9 members of the Murder by the Book Group, which meets on the 2nd Wednesday of the month, met at Cackie Kyle's house to choose books for the coming year. After the book selection was completed, the group enjoyed a lunch of tasty salads.

According to Jane Taft, "[The selection process] resulted in an unusually diverse assortment of books for the coming year's pleasure. They range in time from the 1830s to contemporary. Settings include the US, Canada, Scotland, England, France, Switzerland, and Laos. All have, according to those who nominated them, a strong sense of place."

For those of you who enjoy reading mysteries, but do not attend the group, here is the list:

Dashiell Hammett, The Maltese Falcon
Ann Cleeves, Raven Black
Peter May, Extraordinary People
Ausma Zehanat Khan, The Unquiet Dead
Colin Cotterill, The Coroner's Lunch
Robert Galbraith, The Cuckoo's Calling
Anna Lee Huber, As Death Draws Near
Kathryn Casey, Singularity
Elly Griffiths, The Zig Zag Girl
William Kent Krueger, Sulfur Springs
Tracee de Hahn, Swiss Vendetta
Kate Quinn, The Alice Network

Other books that were recommended but not selected for the coming year:

Wendy Tyson, The Muddied Murder
Mary Anna Evans, Artifacts
David Dickinson, Goodnight, Sweet Prince
Jana DeLeon, Louisiana Longshot
Victoria Grossack, Meryton Murders
Maggy Barbieri, Murder 101
Leslie O'Kane, Play Dead
Marianne Delacourt, Sharp Shooter
Peter Høeg, Smila's Sense of Snow
Ragnar Jonasson, Snowblind
Jeanne M. Dams, The Body in the Transept
Jeffrey Deaver, The Bone Collector

Ann Cleeves, The Crow Trap
SW Carter, The Gray and Guilty Sea
MJ Lee, The Irish Inheritance
Pamela Beeson, The Only Witness

Memories from the Spring Brunch, May 12

by Stephanie Carter

On May 12 we held our spring brunch to an excellent turn out. Thank you to everyone who helped out with arrangements and food.

The brunch replaced our annual luncheon three years ago after prices for the luncheon became unaffordable and attendance dropped. At the event we induct our officers, honor the Named Gift Honorees and introduce new members. Thank you for attending and making it an anticipated annual event. I had fun and certainly hope you did too!

Named Gift Honorees

Each year our branch honors one or more members who have made a special contributions to the branch. This year we honored Margaret Ricks and Stephanie Carter.

This active member got involved from the start,
She took on her new job, and proved she is smart.

She got engaged in other ways too,
A great host for dining, although she was new.

A crafty gal, an educator too,
She does lots of travel and enjoys a great view.

She took on a new role, a most difficult one,
Learning curve accomplished, she got the job done. [Program VP then Finance VP]

A good board member, she filled several roles,
Accomplished them well, and stayed on her toes.

Whether it was scarves, dues or members
brand new,
She tried to make it easy, and mistakes were few.

So thanks to Margaret Ricks, for two jobs
well done,
And being a volunteer, second to none!

2018 AAUW National Bylaw Amendment Voting Results

There were three proposals to amend the National bylaws. Of these one passed and two failed. The proposal to create staggered board terms passed. The proposal to allow non-AAUW members to sit on the board did not pass. The proposal to eliminate the degree requirement was defeated again.

More than 19% of eligible members voted nationwide. Oregon was among the states having a higher turnout at 12.34%.

New Educational Partner

For many years we have partnered with Marylhurst University as an educational partner. Our branch has annually provided a $2,000 scholarship to a non-traditional student. Now that Marylhurst is closing, we are exploring a partnership with Clackamas Community College.

She quickly became involved with the movie and delightful dining group and Thursday night books. In June 2011 she became branch co-President with Penny Hansen and they served for two years. During that time, she set up our branch's first website. Together with Jane Taft, she established the Murder by the Book group, which they co-chair. Stephanie has been the newsletter editor since June 2013 and is glad that this her final issue.

In addition to these activities, Stephanie served her community as an alternate Tigard Library Board and a member of the Elders in Action board. During this time she also worked her way from new associate attorney to partner in the law firm of Draneas & Huglin, P.C. and worked on a masters degree in taxation at Portland State University.

Stephanie Carter joined our branch in 2009 soon after she moved to the area after completing law school. She had previously been a member of the Lewis County, WA branch.
